

OUR MANAGEMENT TEAM

Wayne M. Gatewood, Jr.,

President / CEO

With 43-years of top-level management and administrative experience, Wayne has provided management advice and administrative support for government and commercial sector enterprises. His leadership and vision have helped establish Quality Support in the federal and commercial marketplaces. He is a recognized expert in the management of administrative and technical support contracts for many government agencies. A 21-year veteran of the United States Marine Corps, he served as a senior intelligence support manager and personnel/administrative manager in the U.S. and abroad. He is the recipient of numerous decorations, including the Meritorious Service Medal. Wayne holds an MS in International Relations from Troy State University and BS in Business Management from Wayland Baptist University. Furthermore, he is a noted speaker on the complex issues involving transition from the military to civilian life.

Barbara V. Parham

Vice President, Corporate Operations

Ms. Parham has over 25 years of experience in project management, direct marketing, meeting, conference, and trade show management. As the operations leader, Ms. Parham assumes a strategic role in the overall management of corporate projects. She is primarily responsible for the day to day planning, implementation, managing and administration of all contract-related activities. This includes direct responsibility for maintaining performance levels in all projects; managing cost accountability; contract administration; and supervising project managers. Ms. Parham attended Prince George's Community College and Virginia Commonwealth University.

Quality Support, Inc. Advisory Board: Quality Support is also assisted by an advisory board staffed by members of the business and technical community. The board, in conjunction with Quality Support's network of professional advisors, associates, and employees provides a reliable source for marketing and operations' knowledge necessary to succeed in a competitive market.

In addition to the Advisory Board, Quality Support is supported by the Certified Public Accounting Firm of Flesch and Associates, and the Law Firms of Miles & Stockbridge P.C., Kruchko & Fries, and Matricardi & Moylan.
