

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20506

February 24, 1995

To Whom It May Concern:

This note is to apprise you of the work provided the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) by Quality Support, Inc. (QSI), Wayne M. Gatewood, Jr., President.

Mr. Gatewood's company has supported the NEH by identifying up to 600 Congressional districts, within an extremely tight timeframe (two days), four times a year for the last six years. Our demands are simple: The product has to be perfect.

And it is. Consistently.

Over the years, Quality Support's performance and product has been 100 percent accurate. Quality Support can be relied upon to use as many tools, methods, and resources as are needed in order to deliver a complete, timely, and superior product. The organization has proven itself to be flexible, meeting our needs as they changed, and rigorous, alerting us to changes that affected our project. Always professional, the staff of Quality Support has maintained excellent communications with me, my staff and my colleagues here at NEH.

Simply put, the organization has proven itself to be exemplary in every way, and I feel certain that you will not be disappointed in any work performed by Quality Support, Inc.

If you need further comment or clarification, I will be happy to provide it. You may reach me at 202/606-8400.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Joy Evans". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Joy Evans
Public Information Officer